Please Read and Sign This Agreement:

In consideration of my enrollment and participation in Kalamazoo Kennel Club, Inc. Training Classes, I hereby agree to assume all liability for any personal injury, property damage and injury, or damage to other dogs or other people I or my dog(s) cause. I understand that fees will not be refunded after the first night of training classes with my dog(s) without KKC Board approval. The Kalamazoo Kennel Club takes every measure to ensure the comfort and safety of all people and dogs participating in our classes. If your dog exhibits any behavior that leads to the instructor to conclude that your dog is too dangerous or aggressive with dogs or people to participate in a group class, your instructor will dismiss your dog from all future classes. We will provide you with a list of instructors who give private training to dogs with serious behavior issues.

Tuesdays Starting June 8th		Drop- In Beginning/Intermediate	Drop- In Advanced

You may send your dog's vaccination records with your registration, or bring them to the first night of class.

Beginning: This class is designed to teach the students with their dog the fundamentals of dog showing. It will focus on ring procedures for competition including attention, gaiting, patterns, table work, stacking, free stacking and overall presentation. (This class is best suited for beginners and Juniors)

Intermediate: This class is designed to continue working on handling skills and getting yourself and your dog ready for the show ring.

Advanced: This class is designed to give the competitor the opportunity to polish handling skills with critique. The class is structured so that each individual can receive input on their handling skills. (This class is best suited for the experienced competitors)
